NOSTRADASSA RETURNS TO CONTEST GORDON LEWIS MEMORIAL

Nostradassa, widely regarded as the Queen of the Garrison Savannah, makes a highly anticipated return to the track as she lines up in the Gordon Lewis handicap over 1100 metres. The accomplished filly known for her blistering early speed and tenacity in the closing stages faces a competitive field of six rivals.

Nostradassa will be making her second start in 2026 after an 84-day break. She ended her 2025 campaign with a win in the Grade 1 Breeders Classic. Making her seasonal bow on January 17 in the Ocean Hotels Barbados Trophy over 1100 metres, she easily defeated the likes of Major Dan, Brilliant News, cruising home by a 1 $\frac{3}{4}$ lengths.

Jarelle Beckles, who has ridden Nostradassa in her last six starts, will again be aboard.

The Andrew Nunes-trained Major Dan makes his first start since his unplaced effort in the Spa Sprint on Gold Cup day.

The gelded son of Ashdan was in the frame in his last eight starts with two wins, five second places and one third. Always a model of consistency, Major Dan will have Rickey Walcott aboard for today's assignment.

Dancing Prospector was fourth in the Grade 1 Spa Sprint in his last start 35 days ago, and his owner/trainer has again named champion apprentice Raheem Thorpe to ride with his 5lb claim.

Trainer Remel Lovell has declared War Beat for this sprint. He surprised many with his third-place finish in the Spa, a length behind the winner Miss Anya. Lovell will give the leg up to jockey Rasheed Hughes, taking 129 lbs to post.

The lightly weighted Show Me The Money (Arron Daniel), Brilliant News (Delano Lopez) and Brenner Pass (Davonte Abraham) are the other entrants.

All eyes will be on Mystic Reign in the day's first race, as he seeks to complete his third straight win. His stablemate Soleil Levant is also after a third straight win but is going over a distance.
